

H

- 1.habiliments – attire; clothing
- 2.hackles – the hair of a dog's neck
- 3.hackneyed – trite; dulled by excessive use
- 4.hades – hell; the abode of the dead
- 5.haft – the handle of a knife, axe, or spear
- 6.hag – an ugly old woman; a witch
- 7.haggard – weary; hollow-eyed and gaunt, from weariness, hunger, etc.
- 8.haggle – to bargain
- 9.halcyon – calm; peaceful; happy and free
10. hale – robust; sound of body
11. hallowed – holy; revered
12. hallucination – a perception without objective reality
13. hamper – to impede the progress or movement of; to curtail
14. hangar – a large shed or building for aircraft, carriage, etc.
15. hap – fortune; chance; accident
16. haphazard – arbitrary; random; chaotic
17. hapless – unlucky; unhappy

18. hasten – cause to occur or be ready or be done sooner
19. harangue – a loud, aggressive speech addressed to a crowd
20. harass – to trouble constantly; to annoy persistently
21. harbinger – a host; a forerunner, a thing which tells of the onset or coming; to precede as harbinger
22. harbor – a refuge or shelter
23. harpings – the foreparts of the wales at the bow
24. harridan – a sharp-tongued, scolding or bullying old woman
25. harrow – a spiked frame for leveling soil
26. harry – to plunder; to ravage; to destroy
27. hassle – annoying inconvenience; deliberate harassment; to harass
28. haughtiness – proudness; arrogance
29. haughty – arrogantly self-admiring and disdainful
30. haunches – the hip and the buttock taken together
31. havoc – widespread destruction; great confusion or disorder
32. hawser – a large rope used in tying
33. hazardous – dangerous; perilous
34. hazy – thick with haze; ill-defined; not clear

35. heckler – one who plies with embarrassing questions, shouts or jeers abusively or disruptively at
36. hedonism – a lifestyle devoted to pleasure-seeking; the pursuit of pleasure
37. heedless – unmindful; reckless; careless
38. hegemony – supremacy; leadership; dominance
39. hegira – the flight of Mohammed from Mecca; any flight
40. heifer – a young cow
41. heinous – outrageously wicked; atrocious
42. helmsman – a steersman
43. henchman – a trusted supporter or attendant, a squire, a page of honour
44. herald – an official messenger bringing news
45. herbivorous – eating or living on grass or herbage
46. heresy – apostasy; infidelity; dissent
47. heretic – the upholder of a heresy; a person whose views are at variance with those of the majority
48. hermaphrodite – a human being, animal or plant with the organs of both sexes
49. hermetic – belonging to magic or alchemy, magical; obscure
50. hermetically – closed completely; made airtight by melting the glass

51. hermitage – a hermit's place or cell; a secluded abode
52. heterogeneous – composed of parts of different kinds
53. hew – to cut with blows; to fell or sever with blows
54. hibernal – belonging to winter; wintry
55. hibernate – to be inactive; to pass the winter in a dormant state
56. hierarchy – a body or organization classified in successively subordinate grades
57. hieroglyphic – writing that is difficult to read
58. hilarious – extravagantly merry; very funny
59. hindmost – farthest behind
60. hindrance – barrier; encumbrance; obstacle
61. hireling – a hired servant; a mercenary; a person activated solely by material considerations
62. hirsute – hairy; shaggy; having long, stiffish hairs
63. historic – famous or important in history
64. historical – pertaining to history
65. histrionic – relating to the stage or actors; melodramatic
66. hoary – white or grey with age; whitish
67. hoax – deceptive trick played maliciously or for a joke

68. hobo – a homeless person
69. hogshead – a large cask
70. holocaust – a huge slaughter or destruction of life; a disaster
71. holster – a pistol-case, slung on a saddle or belt
72. homage – honour; respect; tribute
73. homespun – spun at home
74. homily – a talk giving advice and encouragement; a plain explanatory sermon
75. homogeneous – of the same kind or nature; having the constituent elements similar throughout
76. hone – sharpen
77. hoodwink – to deceive, cheat
78. horde – multitude; a migratory or wandering tribe or clan
79. horrid – causing horror; very unpleasant
80. hortatory – inciting; encouraging
81. horticultural – pertaining to the gardening
82. hosanna – in shout of adoration
83. hostelry – an inn
84. hovel – a small or wretched dwelling
85. hover – hangover; linger; to move about nearby
86. hoyden – a tomboy

87. hubbub – uproar; riot; a confused sound of many voices
88. hubris – insolence; over-confidence; arrogance, such as invites disaster or ruin
89. hue – colour; appearance
90. huffy – easily offended
91. human – mankind; belonging to mankind
92. humane – merciful; kind; benevolent
93. humdinger – an outstanding person or thing
94. humdrum – monotonous; dull
95. humid – moist; rather wet
96. humility – the state or quality of being humble; lowliness; modesty
97. hummock – a hillock
98. humus – decomposed organic matter in the soil
99. hurtle – to hurl; to clash
100. husbandry – the business of a farmer; economical management
101. hustings – electioneering
102. hustle – to push together; to jostle; to exert pressure on
103. hybrid – crossbreed; produced from different species, etc.
104. hydrophobia – fear of water; rabies

105. hymn – a song of praise (esp. to God)
106. hyperbole – exaggeration
107. hyperborean – belonging to the extreme north
108. hypercritical – excessively critical
109. hypochondriac – a suffer from hypochondria;
melancholy
110. hypocrite – the assumption or postulation of moral standards to which one's own behavior does not confirm; dissimulation; pretence
111. hypocritical – deceptive; phoney; practicing hypocrisy
112. hypothetical – imaginary; speculative; theoretical
113. hypnotic – a drug that produces sleep
114. hypsography – the branch of geography dealing with the measurement and mapping of heights above sea-level
115. hysteria – delirium; insanity