

L

1. labyrinth – an arrangement of tortuous paths or alleys in which it is difficult to find the way out; amaze
2. lacerate – cut; wounded; mutilated
3. lachrymose – tearful; weepy; pathetic
4. lackadaisical – languid and ineffectual; indolent; lazy' lethargic
5. lackey – attendant; hireling; minion
6. lackluster – dull; lifeless; apathetic
7. laconic – sententiously brief; concise
8. laden – heavily loaded or weighed down
9. laggard – a person who lags behind
10. lambent – flickering; softly radiant, glowing
11. lampoon – to attack or ridicule by personal satire
12. languid – lethargic; spiritless; flagging
13. lank – long and thin; drooping; flaccid
14. lapidary – a cutter of stones, esp. of gem-stones; an expert of gems
15. larceny – burglary; robbery; theft
16. larder – a room or large cupboard for storing food
17. largesse – generosity; distribution of gifts
18. largo – (music) in a slow tempo and dignified style
19. lascivious – lecherous; wanton; obscene; indecent

20. lashings – a large amount of food or drink
21. lassitude – exhaustion; fatigue; weariness
22. latent – hidden; concealed; dormant
23. lath – a thin, flat strip of wood
24. latitude – freedom; liberty
25. laudable – praiseworthy; commendable; admirable
26. laureate – a person who is honored for outstanding creative or intellectual achievement
27. lavatory – a toilet
28. lave – to wash; to bathe
29. layman – a person without professional or specialized knowledge in a particular subject
30. lax – negligent; careless; derelict
31. lecherous – lustful; sensual
32. lectern – a reading-desk
33. leery – cautious or wary
34. leeway – scope; range; freedom; liberty
35. legacy – reputation; inheritance; a bequest of personal property
36. legatee – the recipient of a legacy
37. legato – (music) in a smooth, flowing manner
38. legend – code; key; inscription; slogan
39. legerdemain – trickery; sleight-of-hand; deceit
40. leonine- lion-like

41. lesion – an injury or wound; an abnormal change in the structure of body tissue caused by disease or injury
42. lethargy – indolence; laziness; languor
43. levity – frivolity; lightness of temper or conduct; thoughtlessness
44. lewd – indecent; obscene; sensual; lustful; unchaste
45. lexicographer – a person who writes in a system in which each sign represents a word; a person who writes a dictionary
46. liaison – union; connection; a secret or illicit love affair
47. libation – the pouring forth of wine or other liquid in honour of a God or Goddess
48. libelous – defamatory; maligning
49. libertine – pleasure-seeker; individualist; debauchee
50. libidinous – lustful; lascivious; lewd
51. libido – vital urge, either in general or as of sexual origin; sexual impulse
52. licentious – promiscuous; indulging in excessive freedom
53. lieu – used chiefly in the phrase in lieu of; in place of, substitute
54. lilliputian – a midget
55. limber – agile; flexible; supple

56. limbo – an uncertain or intermediate state; prison
57. limn – to draw
58. limpid – clear; lucid; transparent
59. lineage – ancestry; family tree
60. lineaments – distinguishing features especially on the face
61. linguistic – relating to languages or knowledge or the study of languages
62. lionize – to treat as a hero or celebrity
63. liquidate – to clear off; to dispose off; to kill
64. lissome – flexible; nimble; lithe
65. listless – indolent; languid; unconcerned; uninterested
66. litany – a prayer of supplication
67. literati – men of letters, the learned class
68. lithe – flexible; supple; limber
69. litigant – engaged in a lawsuit
70. litotes – meiosis or understatement
71. livid – enraged; furious; extremely angry
72. loath – unwilling; averse; reluctant
73. loathe – hate; abhor; detest; dislike intensely
74. lode – an open ditch; a reach of water
75. lofty – very high in position, character, manner or diction; high-minded; elevated

76. loiter – to linger; to dawdle
77. loll – to lie lazily about, to lounge or sprawl
78. longevity – great length of life
79. lope – to run with a long stride; to leap
80. loquacious – talkative; verbose; garrulous
81. lothario – a seducer; a rake
82. lout – an ill-mannered, aggressive or awkward man or youth; an idiot
83. lowly – low in status or importance
84. lubricity – slipperiness; smoothness; instability
85. lucent – shining; bright
86. lucid – clear; understandable; comprehensible
87. lucrative – profitable; prosperous; well-paying
88. lucre – riches; resources; funds; wealth
89. ludicrous – absurd; ridiculous; laughable
90. lugubrious – mournful; dismal
91. lull – calm; quiet; soothe
92. luminous – giving light; shining; radiant; bright
93. luminary – celestial body; celebrity; dignitary; notable
94. lunar – belonging to the moon; caused by the moon
95. lupine – of a wolf; like a wolf; wolfish
96. lurid – sensational; shocking; gruesome; horrifying
97. luscious – delicious; appetizing; exceedingly sweet

- 98. luster – shine; brightness; gloss
- 99. lustrous – bright; shining; luminous
- 100. luxuriant – exuberant in growth; overabundant;
profuse

