

U

1. ubiquitous – to be found everywhere
2. ukase – any arbitrary decree from any source
3. ulterior – beyond what is stated or apparent; concealed; undisclosed
4. ultimatum – a last offer or demand; a last word
5. ululate – to howl or wail
6. umbrage – offence; suspicion of injury
7. unanimity – agreement without anyone's dissenting
8. unannounced – without warning or notice
9. unassuaged – unabated; undiminished
10. unassuming – making no assumption, unpretentious; modest
11. unavailing – achieving little or nothing
12. unbridled – not bridled; unrestrained
13. uncanny – weird, supernatural; much greater than one would expect from an ordinary human being
14. unclog – remove a blockage from
15. unconscionable – unscrupulous; outrageous, inordinate
16. uncouth – ungraceful; uncultured in manners or language; unknown; rude

17. unction – ointment; warmth of address; that which is anointing
18. unctuous – offensively suave and smug; full of unction
19. undeceive – to tell (someone) that an idea or belief is mistaken
20. underdog – a competitor thought to have little chance of winning a fight or contest
21. undermine – to weaken gradually or insidiously
22. undulate – to move like or in waves; to vibrate
23. unearth – discover; expose; to bring out of obscurity, bring to light
24. unearthly – weird, ghostly; unconscionable; absurd
25. unequivocal – explicit; clear and emphatic; straightforward
26. unerring – making no error, infallible; faultless
27. unfaltering – steady; without stumbling
28. unfledged – undeveloped or inexperienced; of early youth
29. ungainly – awkward; clumsy
30. unguent – ointment; lotion; balm
31. unilateral – one-sided; on one side
32. unimpeachable – blameless; free from fault
33. uninhibited – unreserved; unrestricted

34. unique – found solely in, belong solely to; rare; individual; distinctive
35. unison – a sound of the same pitch; complete agreement
36. unkempt – uncombed; messy; scruffy
37. unmitigated – not mitigated; unqualified
38. unobtrusive – inconspicuous; modest
39. unprecedented – of which there has been no previous instance
40. unruly – unmanageable; turbulent
41. unsavory – offensive; disagreeable; disreputable
42. unscathed – not harmed or injured
43. unseemly – inappropriate; ill-looking
44. unsullied – without a spot or tarnish; unpolluted
45. untenable – not tenable; not defensible
46. untoward – unlucky; unfitting; unfavorable; unexpected; inconvenient
47. unwitting – unaware; without knowing; unintentional
48. unwonted – unusual; an accustomed
49. upbraid – scold; criticize; to reproach or chide; to adduce in reproach
50. upshot – the conclusion of an argument; the general affect; the outcome, final result

51. upstart – a person who has risen suddenly to prominence
52. urbane – pertaining to or influenced by a city; courteous; smooth-mannered
53. urbanite – a dweller in a city or town
54. urchin – a mischievous child; a child
55. ursine – bear like; of a bear
56. usurer – a person who practices the act of lending money at interest
57. usurp – seize; to take possession of by force, without right, or unjustly
58. usury – the taking of interest on a loan; interest
59. utopia – any real or imaginary state or place believed to be ideal, perfect, excellent
60. uxorious – excessively or submissively fond of a wife