

J

- 1.jabber – chatter volubly and incoherently, utter fast and indistinctly
- 2.jaded – worn-out; fatigued; exhausted; corrupt
- 3.janitor – a door keeper, a care taker of a building
- 4.jape – a practical joke
- 5.jargon – terminology of a profession; dialect
- 6.jaundiced – feeling or showing prejudice, distate or jealousy
- 7.jaunt – an excursion; outing
- 8.jaunty – carefree; jovial; high-spirited
- 9.jejune – immature, callow
10. jeopardy – risk; threat; danger
11. jeremiad – a tale of grief, a doleful story
12. jerky – moving in abrupt stops and starts
13. jester – a professional joker or ‘fool’ a medieval court
14. jettison – to abandon; to reject; to scrap
15. jiffy – a moment
16. jingoism – chauvinism; fanaticism
17. jinx – a person or thing that brings bad luck; to bring bad luck to
18. jocose – merry; full of jokes

19. jocular – merry; fond of joking
20. jostle – to force, push or bump
21. jovial – cheerful; lively; joyous
22. judicious – cautious; logical; tactful
23. juggernaut – a relentless destroying force
24. juncture – a critical or important point of time
25. junket – a picnic; an outing
26. junta – a government formed by a small group of military officers
27. jurisdiction – area; domain; province
28. jurisprudence – knowledge of law; the science or philosophy of law
29. jurist – an expert in law, a legal writer
30. juxtapose – to place side by side

QUICK / DOUBT SOLVING