Testimonials

After attending numerous trial classes from different institutes in Mumbai, I finally made an informed decision and joined QDS Pro for my GMAT exam. Hands down, if you're looking for an elaborate coaching institute with REAL personal attention, then QDS is the place for you. There are a lot of well known institutes which are good but rush through the syllabus or have so many students that they don't give personal attention (believe me because I have taken trial classes at multiple centres). You can even ask for free trial session here and see it for yourself. I do not have any regrets. Even during pandemic, the entire syllabus was covered online in such a smooth way that I now prefer online coaching over offline coaching.

I've attended GMAT quant classes at QDS both in person and online since COVID19. I can honestly say the teaching is excellent – QDS' style is to go from the basic to advanced level to make sure that your fundamentals are solid and then push you to answer the most difficult questions. The instructors are some of the friendliest people you'll ever meet and class sizes are small. Definitely recommended.

I couldn't think of any other class than QDS Pro for my GMAT preparation. The faculties are absolutely helpful and focused solely on your prep in the best possible way according to your schedule. I would strongly anyone who is looking for GMAT prep or any other MBA entrance exams to try their demo class and then decide. I'm sure you will definitely end up joining them.

Testimonials

QDS Pro exceeds expectations! Unlike other coaching institutes focused on 'getting done', the attitude & proficiency of faculty at QDS Pro is amazing. Concepts are key and the teaching method is very interactive fostering learning-by-doing. I am a current student and I am very happy with the preparation.

Simran Prabhakar

QDS Pro is very skilled in their ways of teaching and I am speaking from personal experience as I am currently taking classes. They have made learning GMAT very easy for me. Teachers like Soumil Sir and Ravina Ma'am, have the knowledge and the ability to help any student get a score of their desire. And the personal attention they provide to every student is unparalleled to any other institution. Very Highly Recommended!

Nikhil Viichare

One of the best coaching institutes which really helps students to achieve the desired score. Teachers here are very hardworking and explain the concepts multiple times and Somil sir especially his teaching style is amazing. Both the quants and verbal teaching is fabulous. Also the coaching material provided is more than sufficient to crack the GMAT exam. I would recommend everyone if you are looking to prepare for GMAT or any competitive exam without any doubt join QDSPRO. Thanks a lot QDS PRO Team for your super efforts.
